Duty of Disclosure

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into this contract of insurance, You have a duty of disclosure under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.

Answering our questions

In all cases, if We ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms, You must tell Us anything that You know and that a reasonable person in the circumstances would include in answering the questions.

It is important that You understand You are answering Our questions in this way for Yourself and anyone else that You want to be covered by the contract.

Variations, extensions and reinstatements

For variations, extensions and reinstatements, You have a broader duty to tell Us anything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

Renewal

Where We offer renewal, We may, in addition to or instead of asking specific questions, give You a copy of anything You have previously told Us and ask You to tell Us if it has changed. If We do this, You must tell Us about any change or tell Us that there is no change.

If You do not tell Us about a change to something You have previously told Us, You will be taken to have told Us that there is no change.

What You do not need to tell Us

You do not need to tell Us anything that:

1. reduces the risk We insure You for; or

If You do not tell Us something

If You do not tell Us anything You are required to tell Us, We may cancel Your contract or reduce the amount We will pay You if You make a claim, or both.

If Your failure to tell Us is fraudulent, We may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Who do we act for?

We have entered into an agreement with YourCover for the insurers shown in the PDS and policy wordings and YourCover has authority from them to arrange insurance policies on their behalf and not on your behalf. How we treat your information. We will only ask you for information relevant to your insurance proposal or policy. Insurer Security:

The security of your insurance is important to us. To ensure your needs are met, we assess the financial soundness of insurers and markets using public information including rating agencies. How will you pay for the services provided?

We may be paid in a number of ways, which vary according to the service you require and our arrangements with the relevant insurer.

Payment By The Insurer

Unless we tell you otherwise, we are remunerated by commission from the relevant insurer whenever you enter into an insurance policy arranged by us. We are paid an upfront commission, which is a percentage of the total premium you pay, the exact rate paid is determined based upon the insurance product selected by you, less any taxes fees or levies such as GST and Stamp Duty. The rate of commission does not represent our profit margin as it reimburses us for expenses we incur in distributing the insurance products. Commissions, costs, charges, expenses, benefits and interests are as follows: eMedia Campaigns ranges from 0% to 40%, YourCover ranges from 5% to 40%. All commission payments are subject to the insurance product selected. Some of this commission may also be used to pay bonuses to staff, introducers and representatives. We may receive other forms of commission such as a profit share, bonus or volume commissions. If there is a refund of premium as a result of the cancellation or adjustment of the policy, we reserve the right to retain the full commission.

Fees paid by you:

We may charge you an administration fee in addition to commission when you enter into an insurance policy. If we do charge a fee we will tell you and also advise you of the amount. If premium funding is arranged we may receive a commission from the premium funder and may also charge you a fee (or both). Our commission rates for premium funding are in the range of 0-2%.

Professional Indemnity Insurance Arrangements:

We (YourCover) and our representatives are covered under professional indemnity insurance that complies with the requirements of the Corporations Act. Our (YourCover) insurance (subject to its terms and conditions) will continue to cover claims for employees who no longer work for us (but who did at the time of the relevant conduct) however it will not cover claims relating to the conduct of former representatives.
