SCHEDULE ATTACHING TO AND FORMING PART OF POLICY NO. 00343

Domestic Help

If, as a result of a bodily injury during the insurance period, an insured person is not in receipt of a pre-disability salary and entitled to claim a benefit under Section D – Weekly Benefits – Bodily Injury, we will pay up to the weekly amount shown on the schedule for the cost of hiring domestic help and/or child-minding services reasonably and necessarily incurred. Cover only applies if:

- I. Such child-minding services and domestic help are carried out by persons other than members of the insured person's family or other relatives or persons permanently living with the insured person.
- II. Such child-minding services and domestic help is certified by a doctor as being necessary for the recovery of the insured person payable from the 8th day of treatment by a doctor.

Student Tutorial Benefits

If, as a result of a bodily injury during the insurance period, an insured person is not in receipt of a pre-disability salary and entitled to claim a benefit under Section D – Weekly Benefits – Bodily Injury, we will pay up to the amount shown on the schedule for the cost of student tutorial fees reasonably and necessarily incurred. Cover only applies if:

- I. The insured person is a registered full time student.
- II. Such fees are certified by a doctor as being necessary for the insured person as they are unable to attend class due to the bodily injury.
- III. Such fees are paid to persons other than members of the insured person's family or other relatives or persons permanently living with the insured person.

Non-Medicare Medical Expenses

If, an insured person suffers a bodily injury during the insurance period and whilst engaged on authorised activities, we will reimburse the Non-Medicare medical expenses up to the amount shown on the schedule, provided they are incurred within twelve (12) months of the bodily injury.

Non-Medicare medical expenses may include private hospital, physiotherapy, chiropractic, osteopathy, ambulance and in some cases where there is no Medicare component, fees for doctor, surgeon, x-ray. Dental treatment is not covered unless such treatment is necessarily incurred to sound and natural teeth and is caused by bodily injury and performed by a dentist.

Please note:

- ++ Any benefit payable under Non-Medicare Medical Expenses is less any recovery made from any private health insurance fund with respect to the expense.
- ++ We shall not be liable for any payment in respect of the rendering of a professional service for which Medicare benefit is, or would be payable in accordance with the Health Insurance Act 1973.
- ++ No benefit is payable for any expenses where a Medicare benefit is paid or payable including the balance of monies due or payable by the insured person after deduction of any Medicare benefit or rebate from the actual expense incurred (commonly referred to as the "Medicare Gap").
- ++ In the event of an insured person becoming entitled to a refund or all or part of such expenses from any other source we will only be liable for the excess of the amount recoverable from such other source.

Funeral Expenses

If during the insurance period and whilst the person is an insured person, an insured person dies, we will reimburse the insured or the estate of the insured person up to a maximum of $20,000:

- i. All reasonable funeral, burial or cremation and associated expenses; or
- ii. All reasonable expenses incurred in transporting the insured person's body or ashes to a place nominated by the legal representative of the insured person's estate.

Modification Expenses

If during the insurance period and whilst the person is an insured person, the insured person sustains a bodily injury for which benefits are payable under Insured Events 2 or 3 we will reimburse the insured person up to the maximum $10,000, for actual costs incurred to modify the insured person's home and/or vehicle, or costs associated with relocating the insured person to a more suitable home, provided that evidence is presented from a doctor certifying the modification and/or relocation is medically necessary.

Out of Pocket Expenses

If during the insurance period and whilst the person is an insured person, the insured person sustains a bodily injury which directly results in otherwise unforeseeable expenses for medical aids, local transportation (other than in an ambulance) for the purpose of seeking medical treatment, and other non-medical equipment such as clothing and non-medical equipment, we will pay the actual and reasonable costs incurred up to a maximum of $1,500, provided that those costs are not insured elsewhere under this policy, or we are otherwise prohibited by law from making such payments (for example if a Medicare benefit is payable).

Cyber Risks Endorsement

Any benefits for bodily injury or sickness due to:

- i. the use of, or inability to use, any application, software, or programme in connection with any electronic equipment (for example a computer, smartphone, tablet or internet-capable electronic device);
- ii. any computer virus;
- iii. any computer related hoax relating to i and/or ii above are payable, subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of this policy.

Any benefits for Bodily Injury or Sickness caused by or arising out of a Cyber Act or a Cyber Incident are payable, subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of this policy.

Cyber Act means an unauthorised, malicious or criminal act or series of related unauthorised, malicious or criminal acts, regardless of time and place, or the threat or hoax thereof involving access to, processing of, use of or operation of any Computer System.
